7-12 students, please check your email for a follow up attachment regarding yesterday's Human Trafficking presentation. This will walk you through how to block and report inappropriate content in social media, as well as online reporting to the FBI. If you have concerns or questions, please see Mrs. Shepherd.

Sunday, October 21, 2018 Kinder Haus will be having a Spaghetti Feed at the Pool Hall from 11:30 until 1:30. This is a free will donation with spaghetti, salads and desserts.

Kinder Haus will be having a Fall Festival on Saturday October 27 from 5 pm to 8 pm with games. We are also looking for volunteers for the fall festival.

All Eustis-Farnam students attending activities and sporting events are expected and asked to watch the event. Students have been told to stop being a distraction for those watching the event. Parents are expected to chaperone and supervise their younger children who choose to attend after school activities and sporting events. Students can be asked to leave the event and may not return unless supervised by a parent/adult. Thank you

Junior High VB and FB practice at Eustis-Farnam this week, October 1-4.
